DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-10 and 11-13(renumbered), drawn to a water-based coating composition, classified in class 524, subclass 514.
  - II. Claims 14-19 and 28-30(renumbered), drawn to a coated article, classified in class 428, subclass 411.1.
  - III. Claim 20(renumbered), drawn to a method of preparing an article, classified in class 427, subclass 447.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group I and Group II are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product (MPEP § 806.04(b), 3rd paragraph), and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.04(h)). In the instant case, the intermediate product is deemed to be useful as a molding intermediate and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct since there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions anticipated by the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention. Moreover, the intermediate product(Group I) is in mutually exclusive relationship with the final product(Group II) as per presumably a reaction taking place upon deposition of the cross-linking agent-containing coating composition onto the surface of the article engendering a final product substantially different from the intermediate product, i. . the intermediate product loses its identity upon formation of the final product.

Art Unit: 1713

3. Inventions Group III and Group II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by a materially different process such as a process which does not require that the supporting polymer be in contact with an aqueous based solution, apparently prior to the application of the coating composition.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: a) the instant supporting polymer which includes those species as depicted per at least claims 3, 15, 29 and 30(renumbered); b) the instant hydrophilic polymer which includes those species as depicted per at least claims 4 and 16(renumbered); c) the instant x-linking agent which includes those species as depicted in at least claim 13(renumbered); d) the instant surface which include those species as depicted per at least claim 19(renumbered).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-20 and 28-30(renumbered) are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 1713

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a). Applicant is required to elect an ultimate species of each of components a) – d) for further prosecution on the merits.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

7. Due to the nature and complexity of the restriction coupled with time constraints a telephone call was not made to Ms. Mary Rose Scozzafava on 11/04/02 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement.

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Judy M. Reddick whose telephone number is (703)308-4346. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 6:30 a.m.-3:00 p.m..

The fax phone numbers for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned are (703)872-9310 for regular communications and (703)892-9311 for After Final communications.
